

Scott Tierney is a native of Cobleskill, New York, and currently lives in Aurora, Colorado. He is a 29-year Air Force veteran and is the Senior Enlisted Leader at a National Intelligence Agency. He has been married to his wife D'Egra for 18 years and they have two boys, Connor who is 13 and Logan who is 10. Scott received two Associates degrees from the Community College of the Air Force in Aerospace Ground Equipment Technology and Communications Technology. He has a Bachelor of Applied Science degree in Political Science from Troy University. Scott received his MBA from Oklahoma State University in December 2018. He has lived overseas in Italy, Turkey, and Greece and has deployed in support of Operations Desert Shield, Desert Storm and multiple deployments to Iraq and Afghanistan. He is the recipient of several military honors and decorations including three Bronze Star Medals.